

NECHAKO VALLEY COMMUNITY SERVICES SOCIETY

JOB POSTING # 2017-027

Client Transport/Supervised Visit Worker

JOB SUMMARY

The Transport and Supervised Visit services are intended to ensure safe and appropriate visits take place between parents and their children when supervision orders are in effect. The primary purpose of the program is to provide continued connection between parents and children by ensuring well-being and safety during each visit.

Upon referral from MCFD or Nezul Be Hunuyeh the supervised visit worker will meet with the referring social worker and family to review conditions of the supervised visit and expected participation in the program. The conditions of each visit will be determined by the referring social worker. Throughout service, the supervised visit worker will engage the family in positive activities and conversations that encourages parent/ child interactions.

Services will be provided on a flexible schedule that responds to family's needs and conditions of each supervision order. The supervised visit worker objectively documents each visit and shares this information with the referring social worker weekly or as needed.
